

RESPONSABILITY TERM

MAMUT TREKKING CHAPADA DIAMANTINA

Your safety and enjoyment are our priorities. In the vast majority of nature adventure activities, there's an element of risk (venomous animals, falls, storms, floods, accidents...). The trip you've chosen takes place in a wilderness area where rescue procedures can be time-consuming (taking many hours). Mechanical failures of the transport vehicle may delay or alter the trip.

Hiking on trails and mountain walks can be dangerous, even though we adhere to national ecotourism standards and have validated internal protocols. If you don't feel comfortable participating knowing this, you're free to withdraw. We're here to ensure your safety and to ensure you're fully aware of the type of activity you're choosing. Throughout the trip, please follow the recommendations of the Mamut Trekking guides and operators, who will provide all safety instructions.

We reserve the right to cancel or change the trip depending on road conditions, weather, or any other factor that may compromise the safety of visitors. Remember, you're part of a unique type of tourism where the "team spirit" is essential. It's a tourism without stardom, without spotlights, where only you and your group matter.

I, _____

Sincerely, Marcelo Cabral.
